BMPC2018 FILM SCREENING:

Muslimah's Guide to Marriage

written & directed by Aminah Bakeer Abdul-Jabbaar

Join us at the 2018 Black Muslim Psychology Conference for a screening of this award winning Romantic-Comedy about Muslimah Mohammad (Ebony Perry), a twenty-something African-American orthodox Muslim Woman who lives in Inglewood, CA. Muslimah has only seven days and fourteen hours left in her Iddah (Muslim separation) before she will officially be divorced from her husband.

Knowing that the divorce would upset her religious father (Glenn Plummer) and the local Muslim community, Muslimah works diligently to try to fix her broken marriage before it is too late. Winner of the Audience Award at the Pan African Film Festival, this smart, witty romantic comedy offers something all too rare onscreen: a brash, irreverent look at black Muslim life.

A Q&A with Writer and Director: Aminah Bakeer Abdul Jabbaar will follow the screening

Facilitators: Dr. Quaiser Abdullah & Donna Auston

This session will offer leaders the opportunity to engage in dialogue about marriage and family, collective health and well-being and respond to questions such as: How do we resolve interpersonal, familial and community challenges in ways that restore harmony and repair harm? How do we confront and address challenging issues such as domestic violence, sexual trauma, toxic masculinity and gender inequality, which wreak havoc in our families and our movements? In what ways do we integrate faith, culture and spiritual resilience into solutions to our most pressing community problems? The primary goal for the Imam Roundtable is meaningful and substantially interactive conversation between the participants and the listening audience--a safe, productive space where we can listen and learn from the perspectives of everyone present, and in turn, grow stronger together

This unique gathering is dedicated to expanding the conversation on self-love, self-acceptance and self-determination. We will engage in honest dialogue through didactic workshops, small group discussions, interactive group learning exercises and creative expression. We invite and welcome ALL members of the community to this dialogue - laypersons and professionals alike. BMPC is open to nonBlack Muslims, nonMuslim allies and people of all faiths (or none) and backgrounds are encouraged to attend and engage in a spirit of humility, curiosity and respect. Join us on this journey of truth, resistance, and commitment to liberation and wellness with an open mind and heart.
